FORMER YATESBORO BOY DIES IN BATTLE CREEK MICH

Oscar F. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Nelson of Yatesboro, died in the Roosevelt American Legion Hospital, Battle Creek Michigan, on Tuesday, February 26th, 1925.

The deceased who was born August 14, 1895 was 29 years, 6 months and 12 days old. He was formerly employed at this place by W. P. Lauster in the flour mill until about seven years ago when he went to Jackson, Michigan where he spent the remainder of his life except the time spent at the Camp Custer during the World War. He was a patient at the hospital since November and his death came so very suddenly.

His remains were sent to his home at Yatesboro on last Wednesday. Mrs. Pierce and brother Victor left at once for his bedside but death claimed him three hours before their arrival.

The remains were shipped to Yatesboro by the U. S. Veterans Bureau where funeral services were held Monday afternoon by Rev. U. S. Bartz assisted by Rev. Merwin, under the auspices of Cosgrove Post No. 523 followed by interment in the Rural Valley cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Nelson, two brothers and three sisters Victor and Mrs. H. E. Pierce of Yatesboro, Esther of Wilmerding, Richard of Widnoon and Mrs. John McGregor of Kittanning.

He was a member of the American Legion and F. O. E., Jackson, Mich.

LOCAL GRANGERS BUY LYCEUM HALL

The hall formerly used for the Grange Hall, a part of the hotel property, purchased by the Rural Valley Mutual Fire Insurance Company is being converted into office rooms for the company into which it will move

Local Business Man Dies Suddenly

The community was sadly bereaved upon learning of the death of Louis W. Kime, a well known business man of Rural Valley, who passed quietly away at the Kittanning General Hospital at 8:30 o'clock on Saturday morning, February 28.

Mr. Kime was born in Rural Valley on February 21, 1862 and died on February 28, 1925.

The deceased was able to go about his business until Thursday morning Feb. 26, when he was taken to the hospital in Kittanning for treatment where he remained until the time of his death.

Although he had been in poor health for the past two years Mr. Kime made little mention of the fact, preferring always not to share his troubles, but only his joys with others.

He was a very industrious and energetic business man, having taught school for eleven years in Butler and Armstrong Counties, prior to the time when he embarked in the mercantile business in which line of work thirty-five years of his life were spent.

His work as a store keeper recently terminated when he became an inactive member of the firm known as Kime & O'Harrow, Mr. O'Harrow having bought a half interest in the store.

We believe that Mr. Kime and Mr. O'Harrow have by their honesty and worth as business men built up a splendid business in Rural Valley and their many friends are confident that the business will continue to be most successful.

Mr. Kime was a man of good character and was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone who was needy or in bereavement.

He ever responded to charity and christian institutions, and was ready at any time to sanction any movement which promised improvement of the community in which he lived so long as such undertaking did not prove a burden to those involved.

Although he never married, this fact did not cause him to alienate his love for the children and his association with them, as he was in the height of happiness when in their

AMERICAN LEGION PLAY GREAT SUCCESS

On Friday evening, February 27, was the time of the staging of the play entitled, "The Captain of Plymouth," a comic opera given under the auspices of the American Legion Cosgrove Post No. 523.

The play, a three act comedy was largely attended and very much appreciated by the large number who were able to gain admittance to the

AGED COUPLE MARRIED

Cupid is no respecter of age, young and old falling willingly to his darts. At the Court House on Wednesday of last week a marriage license was issued to Jeremiah Wyant, aged 83 and Catherine E. Rea, aged 63, both of Washington township. Mr. Wyant's former wife died December 29, 1923, and Mrs. Rea has been a widow since September 5, 1922.

ATWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bartholomew have gone to housekeeping in Indiana. The Atwood public school was closed part of last week on account of the teacher, Miss Bertha Wilbert being on the sick list.

Patron's Day was observed in our school on Friday evening, February 20. A large number of patrons were present and all were well pleased with the exercises.

frontal bone of the skull was missing. Following an operation it was thought that he would recover, but he died before he was able to leave the hospital.

Half and the praise which was heard on every side was evidence of the successful manner in which the performance was given.

The first act represented the Harbor of Plymouth, with the arrival of Captain Miles Standish, and the loyal welcome he received.

The second act represented the interior of Priscilla's home and when the curtain rolled up she was sitting beside her spinning wheel, and while thus engaged she sang a beautiful solo. John Alden appeared and tried to get the beautiful Priscilla to become interested in Miles Standish but she preferred a man who was able to speak for himself.

The scene now changed to the camp of the Pequots and while Miles Standish and Erasmus were tied to a tree a company of Indians arrived and danced and sang while the captives made attempts to free themselves. An Indian princess arrived and fell in love with Standish who promised to marry her if she released them.

The third act started out with a male chorus, followed by a solo and a chorus by the sextette of Plymouth Daisies.

The music throughout the play was new and catchy. The Odd Fellows Orchestra furnished the instrumental music between acts.

RESULTS OF SCARCE LIQUOR

It is well known that a lot of boots, a lot of vil and wreck, chances by over-licence in cold band drink.

It is not so well known that Chicago which had 5,238 cases of delinquent and neglected children in 1919, had only 3,350 last year, with more population and harder times; that New York had 3,000 fewer delinquents and neglected children in this last year of federal prohibition than in the last year of legal liquor traffic, and that Massachusetts reports, since the dry amendment went into effect, a decrease of 30 per cent in child crime and vice and a decrease of 50 per cent in the prison population.

"Give probation and charity and social effort all the credit you like," remarks Collier's Weekly, "but had scarce booze nothing to do with it!"—Ex.

OUR PRESIDENT

President Coolidge at last. The end of the long trail of preparation has been reached. Now with the inauguration we have in the White House a full fledged, well balanced experienced man holding the reins of government and equipped to his individual liking. Up to this hour the president has been kept busy trying to shape and modify the legacy left to him, but necessarily hampered by the clutter of officialdom and the bewildering maze of policies in no sense were the children of his own creation. The situation is now changed. For months President Coolidge has been putting his official house in order. As a fact no president ever has had better opportunity to shape a government that would be ready to function with full intelligence and understanding the instant he stepped into office. The people look forward with confidence to the real. Coolidge in action. No one knows better than the President that with the assumption of complete power he must also bear the full burden of responsibility, but the people, ever generous, will stand behind their national leader. For the next four years there can be no parties save those that stand for a united nation whose aspiration is and the prosperity that follow wake.

CELEBRATES 91st BIRTHDAY

William H. Allen of West Mahoning township, celebrated his 91st birthday. He was born on the farm at Allen's Ford where he still resides March 1, 1834. On March 1, 1925 surrounded by his five children and seven of his grandchildren, he celebrated the completion of his 91 years, by a family dinner.

Mr. Allen is still active for a man of his age, although his sight and hearing have failed. When the weather permits he is always about the farm. He is able to saw wood and with his failing sight can make an axe that is equal to any factory.

The attendance at Calhoun School, Wayne township, during the month of February.

The boys had a percentage of 95 attendance and three times tardy, while the girls attendance was 100% and one tardy mark recorded.

The average attendance was over 97%. This makes the fourth month which the girls have kept up this perfect degree of attendance. Also for the year five pupils have succeeded in holding a perfect attendance record.—Madison Marshall, teacher.

PITT TRAINS 75% OF DENTISTS OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Seventy-five per cent of the dentists practicing in Western Pennsylvania are graduates of the University of Pittsburgh, according to a survey completed by the Citizen's Committee of the University which has assumed financial responsibility for the erection of the 52 story Cathedral of Learning. The investigation was made to determine to just what extent the western part of the state depends on its own schools for its professional men.

The report shows that all University of Pittsburgh dentists who are practicing in the district are in the profession in the district. The number of dentists in the state is 1,230. The number of dentists in the district is 18.

HEALTH TALK

The health talk of the Pennsylvania Department of Health is prepared this week by Dr. J. Moore Campbell, Director, Bureau of Communicable Diseases. Dr. Campbell says:—

"Scarlet fever is more prevalent some years than others and the present season—1924-1925—seems to be the occasional bad year. Rural as well as urban communities have been affected.

Health officers are handicapped to a degree in pushing control measures, because a large percentage of the cases are mild and do not come to light at all, or not until after they have infected other children or presented one of the several complications of scarlet fever necessitating the calling of a doctor.

However, scarlet fever contracted on a mild case may be very severe even fatal. The mild case is usually concealed and may avoid quarantine, but a quarantine is necessary to prevent the sign.

Thorough enforcement of the law will counteract the damage carelessness householders may thus do. Parents should understand that scarlet fever is contracted only by contact with a case and that, therefore, children should be kept away from crowds and well in hand during its prevalence in the neighborhood. The importance of reducing childhood contact is not sufficiently appreciated. School room disinfection, if children scarcely recovered from mild scarlet fever are allowed to attend, is worse than nothing because it establishes a feeling of safety which does not exist. A local public sentiment which is inclined to severely censure all parents who will not call a physician or report their own cases of scarlet fever is the health officer's most powerful ally in the control of the disease."

FIRST 1925 LAW

The first law of 1925 was inserted in the statutes last Thursday when Gov. Pinchot signed the Talbot bill providing for establishment and maintenance of contagious disease hospitals by two or more counties jointly. This was the first bill to pass both Houses of the legislature.

Farmers Institute at Dayton has been postponed until March 19 and 20. The speakers will be unable to get here until that time.

A. C. Marshall of Atwood, was a Dayton visitor Monday. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Miss Mary, who had been staying at the home of her uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mechlin of Mansion, Wash., who have been visiting friends and relatives here for several weeks returned home on Monday.

The usual services in both the U. P. and M. E. churches next Sunday. There has been no cases of the fever developed and the board of health hope there will be no more.

Wednesday, February 25, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Marshall celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Myron Garner. The ones present were Mr. and Mrs. Garner and two children, Mary Agnes and Kathleen, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Marshall.

The Concert last Friday night, though attended by a small crowd, was a great success. We have a good opinion of "The Hipple Concert Company" as musicians. The next number on our Lyceum Course will be a lecture given on March 16, by Judge George D. Alden.

Doc, Skeezix and Avery will soon know the results of their efforts in the past week in behalf of the school funds. Many people will also be pleased with their investment of a dollar in "The Country Gentleman."

Advertisements for "The Daytonian" have been received from the Rural Valley National Bank and the Safe Deposit and Title Guaranty of Kittanning.

Following is the program for the Sophomore Literary:

- Devotional Garnet Jewart

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

On Wednesday afternoon, February 25th a jolly crowd of ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Chas. Schingery to help her celebrate her 19th birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing various games and at 3:30 a delicious lunch was served which consisted of sandwiches, beets, potato salad, cake, fruit and coffee.

Mrs. Schingery received many useful presents. At four o'clock all departed to their homes wishing Mrs. Schingery many more such happy birthdays.

Those attending were Mesdames:—Henry Weigand, Alice Schrecengost, Clinton Boyera and two sons, Geo.

STREET LIGHT AGLOW

Rural Valley Converted into a Different Town by Addition of Electric Lighted Streets

The long waited for happened. On Thursday, February 26th, 1925 the streets of Rural Valley Borough, for the first time glowed with the beautiful white lights from the new electric lamps attached to the poles that were erected the past winter.

The lights were not turned on, as stated in last week's issue, on Wednesday due to some difficulties that the workmen were unable to overcome until Thursday afternoon.

The lights are turned on at 5:45 each evening by a time switch which turns them off again in the morning at 7 o'clock. The clock that operated the time switch will require winding once a week.

The meters for the various homes were tested out last week and a being installed this week so that power and lights will be ready for the homes the latter part of the first of next month.

For the first of next month the meters will be installed in the homes.

75,000 ATTENDED INAUGURAL CEREMONIES WEDNESDAY

Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States by succession, took the oath of office standing in open air on a special speakers platform built on the steps of the Capitol promptly at 1 o'clock P. M., today, Wednesday, March 4th, 1925, witnessed by a throng estimated at 75,000, 10,000 more than was expected by the committee.

The oath of this high office was administered by a former President of the United States, Chief Justice William Howard Taft. This is the first time in the nation's history that a former president administered the oath of office to the president elect.

The thousands of unseen audience, who listened to the president's address would outnumber the visible audience by many thousands, thanks to the radio.

Beside the various homes where the address was listened to at this place, B. R. Rearick, installed a radio in the public school where the seventh, eighth and High School pupils were permitted to listen to it.

On Wednesday, February 18, 1925. Mrs. Samuel Bussard died at her home in Belknap, after a lingering illness of five years. She was aged 82 years, 6 months and 27 days. Services were held in the Belknap Reformed church of which she had long been a member, on Friday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. F. Hartzel, assisted by Rev. H. C. Prugh of the Concord Presbyterian church. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Mary Clever, Belknap, Mrs. Ida Bish Oak Ridge, Mrs. Bertha Rupp, Dayton, one son Robert Bussard of Belknap; 18 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Also a brother, Anderson Bowser of Rural Valley and a sister, Mrs. Jones of Oakland, Pa.

Section of Tuberculosis Clinic. Dr. Shields says:—
"It is most difficult to recognize the very beginnings of tuberculosis in children. Its early symptoms are frequently mistaken and treated for digestive disturbances, nervous troubles, or other slight general complaints, when the real underlying condition is an active tuberculosis. Early recognition of its presence and the carrying out of proper treatment is of vital importance to the afflicted child. Moreover, the parents and others also share in the benefits derived from an early accurate diagnosis and rational treatment. Some of these advantages are the saving of life, the conservation of forces which might be wasted on worthless treatment, the lessening of the disease while the child is in a strong state of vigor and not in a robust condition, the delay of the serious stage of the disease and the saving of children from their parents' grief. Her confidence in the nature's abundance of food, sufficient to sustain various

LUMSTED CHILD LOSES HAND AND PROBABLY SIGHT

Mary Torosko the little 2½ year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Torosko, who run a boarding house at Lumsted, met with a terrible accident on Thursday of last week when in some manner, unknown to the family, got hold of a dynamite cap which exploded and tore her left hand off just back of the knuckles and probably destroyed the sight of both eyes.

The explosion occurred in the kitchen and when the mother rushed there to learn the cause, found her baby laying on the floor in an unconscious condition with her left hand blown off and both eyes white.

A physician was summoned at once and the child was sent to the hospital at Punxsutawney. Following an examination of the eyes the attending physician stated that the eyes did not respond well and feared that the sight was destroyed.

Just how the accident happened or how the deadly explosive happened to be in the house is not known but having seven boarders it is supposed that some of them have carried the cap into the home where the child got hold of it.

The father claimed that he had no dynamite caps about the house and the superintendent of the mines stated that there was a law against carrying them away from the mine workings. How the cap happened to get into the home will probably never be known but nevertheless the little tot has paid for the carelessness of some one.

PRESIDENT EBERT OF GERMANY DEAD

Frederich Ebert, President of the German Republic, died Saturday morning at 10:15 of peritonitis, following an operation for appendicitis. Ebert, the first president of Germany was born in abject poverty at Heidelberg in 1871. In his boyhood days he was an apprentice saddle maker. Later he became editor of a newspaper and took an active part in politics which resulted in his election to the high office he held at the time of his death.

Since the present German constitution makes no provisions for the office of vice president Germany is left without a president until another one can be elected.

The Reichstag decided on Tuesday that Germany will choose a successor to Ebert on March 29.

As a result of a stabbing affair at Ford City Sunday night Hazel Bell Gage, a colored man was taken to the Kittanning hospital in a serious condition.

Mrs. U. S. Bartz left on Tuesday for Youngstown, Ohio, to spend several weeks with her son Harold.

Shot Down

Glenn Young, Dry Kin leader of Herrin, Ill., who was shot down in the latest riot at that place. He leaves a blind widow, who lost her sight in rioting last year. The town is again under martial law.
